9. Discussion and recommendation to move the Local Option Vote for the Sale and Service of Alcohol to a referendum vote at the Town Meeting. In 1969 and 1975 the Town voted to allow alcohol sales and consumption on Sundays. Since then the Legislation has changed to allow sales and consumption at additional establishments, golf courses are now permitted for example. This will allow the sale and consumption of alcohol on Sundays at all approved and licensed establishments.
10. Initial review and discussion on the Annual Town Warrant. The Preliminary draft of the Warrant is complete and will be finalized following the Combined Budget Hearing.
11. Review and discussion on paving projects for the upcoming year. We have again collaborated with the Towns of Holden, Dedham, and Eddington and received very competitive pricing for a very comprehensive listing of roads to be paved.
12. Department Reports
  - A. Managers' report
  - B. Penobscot County Sheriff's report – Month of April
